LEHI HOLDS SWEARING IN CEREMONY FOR NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICIALS

Mayor and Two Councilmembers Take Oath of Office

Lehi, Utah | January 16, 2014 – Three newly-elected officials were sworn into office during Tuesday night's City Council meeting. Mayor Bert Wilson was sworn in for his second term while Council Members Chris Condie and Paul Hancock begin their first term. Judge Doug Nielson of the Lehi Justice Court administered the oath of office.

Mayor Wilson is excited about what the City has accomplished in the last year and looks forward to serving the next four years. The Mayor's State of the City address can be found on the City website and in the Lehi Ledger in February.

Councilman Condie has been serving on the Planning Commission since September 2011 and is a member of Lehi CERT. He wants to preserve Lehi's history, family atmosphere, and strong business environment. "I want to contribute my time and effort pioneering Lehi's future as it continues to flourish as a great city," Condie said.

Councilman Chris Condie takes the Oath of Office administered by Judge Doug Nielson.

Councilman Hancock has previously served on the Alpine School District Community Council and as the Lehi 20th Precinct Chair. He is committed to maintaining the City's core values as the City grows. "As new businesses and residents build on our strong foundation, Lehi will continue to be a city people want to call home," Hancock said.

Previous to being sworn in, Councilmen Condie and Hancock met with each department to become oriented with the employees and daily operations of the City.

Lehi City operates under the six-member council form of government. The Mayor and five City Council members are each elected at large to serve four-year, staggered terms as the legislative council. Council members Johnny Revill, Mark Johnson, and Mike Southwick hold the remaining council seats.
